

Oklahoma Kodály Educators

presents

Tanya LeJeune

Musical Intentions

Incorporating Mindfulness and Including Scaffolding in the Kodály Classroom

Saturday, September 28, 2019

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

University of Central Oklahoma, Edmond

Music Building, Choir Room

$15 for OAKE Members | $30 for Non-Members

Free for Full-Time Students

Tanya LeJeune lives in Denver, Colorado and is in her twenty-fourth year of teaching music. She currently teaches K-5th grade general music at Jefferson County Public Schools, and Kodály Level I courses at the Colorado Kodály Institute at Colorado State University. Tanya is past president of ROCKE and has served as OAKE Member at Large. She has also served on the Elementary Music Curriculum Advisory Committee for Jefferson County Public Schools since 2000. Tanya has presented music education workshops and in-services for several school districts, universities and colleges in Colorado, as well as CMEA, AOSA Rocky Mountain Chapter, NKE, and OAKE.

Visit okkodaly.org for More Information.

an affiliate of the Organization of American Kodály Educators